

Lowestoft Town Council Grievance Procedure

1.0 Policy Statement

- 1.1 It is our policy to ensure that all employees have access to a procedure to help deal with any grievances relating to their employment fairly and without unreasonable delay. We aim to investigate any formal grievance you raise, hold a meeting to discuss it with you, inform you in writing of the outcome, and give you a right of appeal if you are not satisfied.
- 1.2 Issues that may cause grievances include:
- (a) Terms and conditions of employment;
 - (b) Health and safety;
 - (c) Work relations;
 - (d) Bullying and harassment;
 - (e) New working practices;
 - (f) Working environment;
 - (g) Organisational change; and
 - (h) Discrimination.
- 1.3 This procedure does not form part of any employee's contract of employment. It may be amended at any time and we may depart from it depending on the circumstances of any case.

2.0 Who is Covered by the Procedure?

- 2.1 This procedure applies to all employees regardless of length of service.

3.0 Using This Procedure

- 3.1 If you have difficulty at any stage of the Grievance Procedure because of a disability or because English is not your first language, you should discuss the situation with your Line Manager as soon as possible.
- 3.2 This Grievance Procedure should not be used to complain about dismissal or disciplinary action. If you are dissatisfied with any disciplinary action, you should submit an appeal under the appropriate procedure.
- 3.3 We have a separate Anti-harassment and Bullying Policy that may be useful if you have been the victim of bullying or harassment or wish to report an incident of bullying or harassment involving other people.
- 3.4 We operate a separate Whistleblowing Policy to enable employees to report illegal activities, wrongdoing or malpractice. However, where you are directly affected by the matter in question, or where you feel you have been victimised for an act of whistleblowing, you may raise the matter under this Grievance Procedure.
- 3.5 Written grievances will be placed on your personnel file along with a record of any decisions taken and any notes or other documents compiled during the grievance process. These will be processed in accordance with our Data Protection Policy.

4.0 Raising Grievances Informally

- 4.1 Most grievances can be resolved quickly and informally through discussion with your Line Manager. If the complaint concerns him or her, then you should speak informally to their manager or in the case of the Clerk, to the Chair of the Personnel Committee. If this does not resolve the issue, you should follow the formal procedure below.

Lowestoft Town Council Grievance Procedure

5.0 Formal Written Grievances

- 5.1 If your grievance cannot be resolved informally you should put it in writing and submit it to your Line Manager, indicating that it is a formal grievance. If the grievance concerns them, you may submit it instead to the Chair of the Personnel Committee.
- 5.2 The written grievance should contain a brief description of the nature of your complaint, including any relevant facts, dates, and names of individuals involved. In some situations we may need to ask you to provide further information.

6.0 Investigations

- 6.1 In some cases it may be necessary for us to carry out an investigation into your grievance. The amount of any investigation required will depend on the nature of the allegations and will vary from case to case but will normally be within 10 working days. If extended, an anticipated completion date will be provided. It may involve interviewing and taking statements from you and any witnesses, and/or reviewing relevant documents. The investigation will be carried out by your Line Manager. If the grievance is about them, it will be carried out by the Chair of the Personnel Committee.
- 6.2 You must co-operate fully and promptly in any investigation. This may include informing us of the names of any relevant witnesses, disclosing any relevant documents to us and attending interviews, as part of our investigation.
- 6.3 We may initiate an investigation before holding a grievance meeting where we consider this appropriate. In other cases we may hold a grievance meeting before deciding what investigation (if any) to carry out. In those cases we will hold a further grievance meeting with you after our investigation and before we reach a decision.

7.0 Right to be accompanied

- 7.1 You may bring a companion to any grievance meeting or appeal meeting under this procedure. The companion may be a personal or trade union representative, a colleague, or another person – at the discretion of whomever is holding the meeting. You must tell the person holding the grievance meeting who your chosen companion is, in good time before the meeting.
- 7.2 At the meeting, your companion may make representations to us and ask questions, but should not answer questions on your behalf. You may confer privately with your companion at any time during the meeting.
- 7.3 Acting as a companion is voluntary and your colleagues are under no obligation to do so. If they agree to do so they will be allowed reasonable time off from duties without loss of pay to act as a companion.

8.0 Grievance meetings

- 8.1 We will arrange a grievance meeting, normally within ten days of receiving your written grievance.
- 8.2 We will give you written notice of the time, date and place of any grievance meetings.
- 8.3 You and your companion (if any) should make every effort to attend grievance meetings. If you or your companion cannot attend at the time specified, you should inform us immediately and we will try, within reason, to agree an alternative time.

- 8.4 The purpose of a grievance meeting is to enable you to explain your grievance and how you think it should be resolved, and to assist us to reach a decision based on the available evidence and the representations you have made.
- 8.5 After an initial grievance meeting we may carry out further investigations and hold further grievance meetings as we consider appropriate. Such meetings will be arranged without unreasonable delay.
- 8.6 Your companion at a grievance meeting may make representations to us and ask questions, but should not answer questions on your behalf. You may confer privately with your companion at any time during the meeting.
- 8.7 We will write to you, usually within one week of the final grievance meeting, to inform you of the outcome of your grievance and any further action that we intend to take to resolve the grievance. We will also remind you of your right of appeal. Where appropriate we may hold a meeting to give you this information in person.

9.0 Appeals

- 9.1 If the grievance has not been resolved to your satisfaction you may appeal in writing to the Chair of the Grievance Meeting, stating your full grounds of appeal, within one week of the date on which the decision was sent or given to you.
- 9.2 We will hold an appeal meeting. This will be dealt with impartially by an appointed Appeals Committee who has not previously been involved in the case (although they may ask anyone previously involved to be present).
- 9.3 We will give you written notice of the time, date and place of any grievance meetings.
- 9.4 You have a right to bring a companion to the meeting (see paragraph 7.0).
- 9.5 We will confirm our final decision in writing, usually within one week of the appeal hearing. This is the end of the procedure and there is no further appeal.
