SECTION B: Community Interest Statement – Activities & Related Benefit

Please indicate how it is proposed that the company’s activities will benefit the community, or a section of the community. Please provide as much detail as possible to enable the CIC Regulator to make an informed decision about whether your proposed company is eligible to become a community interest company. It would be useful if you were to explain how you think your company will be different from a commercial company providing similar services or products for individual or personal gain.

Activities (Tell us here what the company is being set up to do)	How will the activity benefit the community? (The community will benefit by...)
Music and creative workshops Delivering Qualifications and training potential workshop leaders	The community will benefit by gaining access to music and creative workshops giving the opportunity to gain new skills, express themselves and have fun. Learning music has proven cognitive benefits, it can reduce stress, anxiety and blood pressure. Educational workshops will pass on knowledge and skills which will improve confidence, self-esteem and participants life chances. The participants will be empowered to have the opportunity to deliver sessions themselves and create employment opportunities. Helping participants gain qualifications can help pursuing a career in music or creative arts. Training up new instructors to work in their local communities and to offer opportunities to others. The directors have many years of experience and skill in helping and guiding participants into careers in those fields, which in turn empowers those they work with.
Developing recording, creative and performance opportunities Delivering workshops to community hubs and residential care homes	The community will benefit by the CIC providing opportunities for participants to record music, write songs, creative writing, arts and performance. Local economies will also benefit through increased customer numbers whilst also providing platforms for the much-needed performance experience. Participants will be networking with local venues, open mic sessions, festivals, studios and industry professionals providing working opportunities. Non grant funded creative arts sessions will be delivered to community.

If the company makes any surplus, it will be used for subsidising further creative sessions for our disadvantaged client groups and purchasing equipment to facilitate the workshops.
